Community Centre Defibrillator: Annaghdown Parish Council are proud to have a defibrillator now stationed on the wall outside the entrance to the Community Centre in Corrandulla village. A huge thanks to all who drop clothes to our clothes bank, those who pay their few euros to attend classes and training in the old hall and sports hall who have made it possible. A special thanks to Councillor James Charity who provided funding to get this over the line. We hope to provide training for anyone interested in learning how to use this life saving equipment in the near future. If you are interested please email info@annaghdown.ie and we will be in touch. We believe that a member of every household in the parish should attend training.
