Annaghdown Heritage Society: Annaghdown Heritage Society will present a workshop entitled "Reading Old Maps" in the Heritage Room, Old Girls' School, Corrandulla on Wednesday, October 23rd at 8 pm. The workshop, co-presented by Paul Gosling, GMIT and Eoin O'Neill, Galway City Museum, will focus on using maps for local history research and use Annaghdown as a case study. They will bring along a selection of maps and will also look at digitised maps that are available online. The workshop is open to all members of the public, so bring along your laptop or tablet and see what the maps highlight in your locality. The talk will be followed by light refreshments and an opportunity to talk to guests. For further information on the Society, see www.annaghdownheritage.ie

Hospice Coffee Morning: A total of €1425 was raised recently in Regans at the Hospice Coffee Morning. A big thank you to all who made that possible. Thank you to Ann & Annaghdown/Corrandulla Active Age who spent the morning with us. Thank you to all who did the home baking, served coffee and who washed up.

Public Meeting : Plean Teanga an Eachréidh. A public meeting to present the draft Irish Language Plan for the area of An tEachréidh (Annaghdown, Carnmore and Claregalway) and seek amendments or suggestions for the plan will be held in Annaghdown National School on Tuesday 22nd October, 2019 at 8.00 p.m. All persons with an interest in the promotion and development of the Irish language are welcome to attend. The plan has been formulated over the past 2 years following extensive consultation with all groups, schools and individuals in the area. The plan is envisaged to help the promotion of the language in the area and provide a platform for people to offer proposals to be included in the plan. Fáilte roimh chách.

Notices: Anyone who wishes to forward suitable notices for the Annaghdown/Corrandulla local notes column in the local newspapers, can do so by emailing info@annaghdown.ie before 12 noon on Monday or by phone at 793796.

Lord, I put my life in your hands trusting that whatever happens, whether it is good or bad, you will help me.
