3.30pm PRAYERS IN ANNAGHDOWN CEMETERY

Mass online: Go to Churchtv.ie/Annaghdown.

Mass of Remembrance: For those who died in the past year will take place in Annaghdown Church on Sunday 26th November at 11am.

November is a time for remembering and praying for our loved ones who have gone before us and whose loss we feel. It is a time when we are particularly conscious of those in our parish who are grieving and all those families who have lost loved ones in the past year. They are not gone from us, but gone before us.

Prayers in Annaghdown Cemetery: Prayers for our deceased loved one will take place next Sunday 19th November at 3.30pm.

Prayer for those who mourn

Bless those who mourn, eternal God, with the comfort of your love that they may face each new day with hope and the certainty that nothing can destroy the good that has been given. May their memories become joyful, their days enriched with friendship, and their lives encircled by your love. Amen.

A Prayer of Remembrance

God, thank you for the special people in our lives whom we are remembering in a special way during the month of November. We thank you for being a compassionate God who walks with us in the our dark moments of grief and loneliness. We are thankful for all who continue to love and support us through our grief. Lord, continue to be a light for us, giving us hope, direction and courage. May we now live our lives treasuring the memories of those special people we have known and loved and help us to bring light and hope to others. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Prayer for the Dead

Into your hands, O Lord,
We humbly entrust our brothers and sisters.
In this life you embraced them with your tender love;
deliver them now from every evil
and bid them enter eternal rest.

The old order has passed away:
welcome them into paradise,
where there will be no sorrow,
no weeping nor pain,
but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever.

Prayers of the Faithful

We pray for those who are in mourning.
May they find real hope in the conviction that God is the God of the living, and that to him all people are alive.

Lord, hear us

We pray for all young people in the parish who have died. We remember especially those who have died suddenly, those who have died in tragedy. May the Lord bring them to a place of light, peace and healing.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for places in our world where people face death on a daily basis because of violence, hunger, war, or disease. We pray for an end to violence and injustice in our world and that God may turn our hearts in compassion towards those in need.

Lord, hear us.

For all the faithful departed, especially those who suffered during their life
on account of their faith and their integrity.
May their courage be rewarded and may they intercede for us from heaven.

Lord, hear us

For those who have died.
May they hear the Lord inviting them to enter into the joy of their Master.

Lord, hear us
