The 'Pilgrim Passport' Is a bespoke booklet that encourages visitors to embark on a spiritual journey across Ireland, exploring a rich Christian heritage and reliving the pilgrim tradition that has been a rich heritage documented back to medieval times. By visiting each of the three iconic pilgrimage sites – Croagh Patrick and Knock Shrine, both in County Mayo, and Lough Derg in County Donegal – pilgrims can get their passport stamped, serving as a poignant reminder of their journey. The passport is available from the Parish office.
